

Presentation Learning Points - Summary Notes

1) Listening Skills

- Listening is active, not passive-it requires full attention and engagement.
- Barriers include distractions, prejudices, and lack of interest.
- Good listeners show interest through body language and feedback.
- Effective listening improves understanding, empathy, and teamwork.
- Practicing reflective listening helps avoid misunderstandings.
- Helps in building relationships and reducing conflicts.

2) TEDx Videos

- i) Mel Robbins - 'How to Stop Screwing Yourself Over':
 - - People know what to do but don't act.
 - - Use the '5 Second Rule' to break hesitation.
 - - Change needs courage, not comfort.
 - - Motivation doesn't come first-action does.
 - - Waiting to feel ready is an excuse.
- ii) Frederik Imbo - 'How Not to Take Things Personally':
 - - People's actions often reflect themselves, not us.
 - - Ego causes us to take things personally.
 - - Respond with curiosity instead of defensiveness.
 - - Separate facts from emotions.
 - - Taking things personally is a choice.

3) Leadership Skills

- Leadership is about influence, not authority.
- Good leaders are self-aware, empathetic, and decisive.
- Effective leaders communicate well and build teams.
- Different styles include democratic, autocratic, transformational.
- Leadership helps in problem-solving and career growth.
- Real examples showed authenticity and accountability matter.

4) Body Language

- Non-verbal cues communicate more than words.

- Positive signs: eye contact, open posture, smiling, nodding.
- Negative signs: crossed arms, no eye contact, fidgeting.
- Shows confidence, sincerity, and clarity.
- Important in interviews, discussions, and presentations.
- Improves self-image and social skills.

5) Group Act

- Taught teamwork, planning, and expressive communication.
- Used body language to tell a story silently.
- Helped in empathy, timing, and audience engagement.
- Built confidence in expressing emotions non-verbally.

6) Time Management (USA.edu blog)

- Pomodoro: 25-min work + 5-min break boosts focus.
- Time Blocking: assign specific time slots to tasks.
- Eisenhower Matrix: Urgent vs Important task prioritization.
- Pareto Principle: 80% results from 20% efforts.
- SMART Goals: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound.
- Eat That Frog: Do hardest task first.
- 2-Minute Rule: Do quick tasks immediately.
- Parkinson's Law: the amount of time you give yourself to complete a specific task is the amount of time it will take you to complete that task.

7) Group Discussion

- Improves clarity and structure in speaking.
- Listening and respecting opinions is key.
- Think on the spot and give real examples.
- Confidence and body language matter.
- Encouraged initiative without dominating.

8) Resume Writing and Mock Interview

- Resume should be clear, precise, and job-specific.
- Highlight skills, achievements, and projects.
- Use action verbs and impactful summaries.
- Mock interviews taught preparation and confidence.
- Researching the company and asking questions helps.

- Feedback improved communication and clarity.

9) Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs

- Five levels: Food, water, shelter | security, stability | Love/Belonging | respect, recognition | personal growth
- Must meet lower needs before higher ones.
- Useful for understanding motivation and goals.

10) Herzberg's Two-Factor Theory

- Hygiene Factors: salary, job security, conditions (prevent dissatisfaction).
- Motivators: recognition, achievement, responsibility (drive satisfaction).
- Focus on motivators to boost productivity and morale.